

F.C. Tucker/Bloomington

REALTORS®

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. – Top honors were granted to F.C. Tucker/Bloomington, REALTORS® associates during this month's annual awards banquet held by the Bloomington Board of REALTORS®. Brian Thompson was recognized as the 2010 Realtor of the Year and Rod Young was honored as the 2010 Humanitarian of the Year.

Brian Thompson won the 2010 Realtor of the Year award for his outstanding involvement with the Bloomington Board of REALTORS® on both the state and local levels, and for his commitment to the Monroe County community. Thompson will also be nominated for the REALTOR® of the Year award in the state competition. Thompson is the sales manager for F.C. Tucker/Bloomington, REALTORS® where he has worked for the past seven years.

Rod Young was named 2010 Humanitarian of the Year based on his extensive service to the Bloomington community. For more than 25 years, Young has served the community in a multitude of ways, focusing mainly on area youth. Among his many accomplishments, Young has served on the board for the Rhino's Youth Media Center and All-Ages Club, has led an annual toy drive that benefits the local Salvation Army, and has braved storms as a bad-weather driver for Meals on Wheels. Young has been working at F.C. Tucker/Bloomington, REALTORS® for eight years.

"It's exciting to see Brian and Rod recognized by fellow REALTORS® for their commitment to this community," said John West, managing broker of F.C. Tucker/Bloomington, REALTORS®. They both place so much importance on giving back to Bloomington and other Monroe County communities, and it's clear that people appreciate their hard work."